

Position for Hire: Energy Auditor

project:HOMES is seeking an individual to join our Weatherization audit team and help improve the energy efficiency of homes, reduce fossil fuel consumption and decrease the carbon footprint of our clients. As an Energy Auditor in Central Virginia, you will work with a skilled technical team to provide a full energy audit and retrofit design to improve the efficiency of qualifying homes. Typical responsibilities include travel to clients' homes, interview of homeowners, conduct energy audits, input home details into a computer model, develop scopes of work, and manage subcontractors to ensure quality installations. Organizational skills are a must as job responsibilities include keeping records, test results, and detailed client files. Auditors must communicate effectively with a wide variety of clients, be self-motivated, and able to balance competing demands. Auditors will be required to work in confined spaces such as attics and crawl spaces, work in extreme temperatures and inclement weather, are comfortable around heights, and working in unpredictable living conditions. Basic construction knowledge is desirable and the ability to utilize evolving technology is essential.

Project:HOMES is a non-profit housing agency dedicated to Improving Lives by Improving Homes. For the past 28 years, we have served the Richmond region. If you are interested in a meaningful career, wish to make a positive impact in the community and improve the environment please consider joining our team. This is a full-time position which includes health insurance, paid vacation, sick leave, and retirement benefits. Funds provided to obtain certifications from the Building Performance Institute (BPI) and required state licenses.

COVID-19 considerations: PPE will be provided including but not limited to: Suits, masks, gloves, booties, and disinfectant solution. Remote work is supported.

Salary is based on the applicant's education and skills background. Range is $18 -$23 per hour. If you are already BPI Certified Auditor and considering this type of auditing work we are very interested in talking with you about this opportunity.

For more information, please contact Lance Hostutler at lance.hostutler@projecthomes.org.