

Position Summary

EnergySmart Academy Trainer and Building Science Specialist

This person works with a team to develop curricula, maintain courses and teach classes for the EnergySmart Academy at Santa Fe Community College, both online and in-person in Santa Fe, NM and around the state and occasionally some travel outside the state

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- Develop, maintain and implement both in-person and remote training
- Provide information, training and technical assistance to industry personnel
- Proctor students as needed
- Develop, review, revise and implement curricula and develop appropriate assessment testing
- Represent the EnergySmart Academy at conferences / on committees etc..

QUALIFICATIONS

- Building Performance Institute Quality Control Inspector certification
- OSHA 30-hour Construction certificate (preferred)
- 3+ years weatherization / energy efficiency field experience
- Training experience (preferred but not required)

LOCATION

- Remote for the next six months, part-time under contract
- Once we are back in person, location is Santa Fe, NM and can be either part-time or full-time.

Contact: Amanda Hatherly amanda.hatherly@sfcc.edu