

New Ecology, Inc. seeks candidates for the position of HERS Rater. This position is part of an organization-wide technical services team with expertise in HERS and other rating systems, energy auditing, construction inspections, site verifications, and energy modeling. The HERS Rater/Energy Auditor will work from either New Ecology's Boston office.

Required Qualifications:

- Valid HERS certification through an accredited Provider;
- One or more years of experience conducting HERS ratings;
- General construction knowledge gained through hands-on experience;
- Strong writing and verbal communication skills, including experience writing reports for clients;
- Proficiency with Microsoft Office, Ekotrope modeling software, and building and engineering design programs;
- Ability to: 1) inspect all aspects of buildings, including: accessing basements, attics, and roofs; 2) climb stairs/ladders; and 3) handle and carry equipment up to 40 lbs.;
- A valid driver's license;
- Professional curiosity and enthusiasm related to energy efficiency and sustainability/green building;
- Demonstrated experience as a team player; and
- Demonstrated ability to be responsible for projects and deliverables