

Professor Gatsby's Heating & Cooling

TITLE: Lead HVAC Service Technician/Installer

Professor Gatsby's Heating & Cooling is based out of Williamstown, NJ. We specialize in servicing and installing residential and commercial heating/air conditioning systems. We offer competitive wages, health benefits, paid vacation, commission with overtime available. Sign on bonus up to $3,000.00 depending upon experience. This position will be full-time with career advancement and training opportunities within our growing company. Ability to take company vehicle We believe in creating a friendly and team working environment to get the job done the best way possible.

KEY SKILLS: 10+ years of HVAC experience, strong verbal communication skills, demonstrate customer service skills in a service-oriented industry, willing to ask questions and solve problems in field, and able to work alongside our team.

REQUIREMENTS: Must have a valid driver's license and EPA certified. Candidate must complete background and drug test as part of hiring process.