

The Weatherization Field Technician will perform prescribed general heat-loss and air-infiltration improvements that will increase the efficiency of homes and correct the health and safety threats.