1. About BPI

Founded in 1993, the Building Performance Institute (BPI) is the nation's premier certification and standard-setting organization for home performance professionals. BPI is accredited by the American National Standards Institute, Inc. (ANSI) as a developer of American National Standards BPI is also accredited as a certifying body for personnel credentials by the ANSI National Accreditation Board (ANAB). BPI develops the technical standards for home energy audits and for energy efficiency, health, and safety improvements. From these standards, BPI develops rigorous online and field exams resulting in one of BPI's 14 professional certifications. BPI understands the importance of impartiality in carrying out its certification activities, manages conflict of interest, and ensures the objectivity of its certification activities.

BPI offers five certificates (Building Science Principles, Healthy Housing Principles, Site Supervisor, Total Building Performance and Cold Climate Air Source Heat Pump Assessor) that support professional growth in building performance and healthy housing. From foundational knowledge in building science and healthy housing principles to assessment, advanced diagnostics and on-site leadership, these credentials help ensure quality, safety, and efficiency in home energy and retrofit work.

BPI is a 501(c)3 corporation registered in the state of New York. The corporation was incorporated on January 18, 1996, and the corporation number is 14-1789014. The objective of the corporation is to provide credentialing for individuals and corporations involved in the residential retrofit industry. BPI is headquartered in Saratoga Springs, NY.

2. BPI Certification Schemes

BPI offers individual certification in a number of areas in the residential retrofit industry.

The certification schemes are developed and then reviewed on an on-going basis by scheme committees made up of subject matter experts – individuals with the credentials and experience within the industry. The scheme committee review statistics, industry changes and current certification scheme requirements on a regular basis.

Industry input on each certification scheme is encouraged. The scheme committee members will seek input from external sources including, but not limited to:

- industry associations
- professional groups
- government agencies
- consumer/owner advocacy groups

The certification outlined in this scheme handbook is for Infiltration & Duct Leakage Professionals who are involved in new home construction code compliance or retrofit of existing residential buildings. For a full listing of certifications, see the www.bpi.org website.

For individuals to become BPI IDL certified, successful completion of a practicum evaluation is required to confirm the candidate's abilities.

To be certified by BPI, the candidate is not required by BPI to undergo any specific training, whether that would be on-site job training or classroom training. BPI does not approve any training programs. It is up to the individual to decide what training they want to take and where to take it, as it is solely their decision.

The requirements for this certification will be reviewed every five years and modified as required by the scheme committee with input from the residential retrofit industry. Modifications to the certification scheme will be made by BPI on the basis of the non-compliance cases, feedback from industry and technical changes to materials, components, systems, building codes or other relevant items.

3. Outline of the Infiltration & Duct Leakage Certification

This certification scheme handbook outlines the knowledge, skills and abilities requirements for the Infiltration & Duct Leakage certification.

This scheme defines the scope of the Infiltration & Duct Leakage certification to include specific diagnostic testing and applied data from whole house infiltration and duct leakage testing. This certification is not intended to be a whole house diagnostic, audit or assessment and consists of three main components: whole house infiltration testing, total distribution system leakage, and distribution leakage to the outside.

This document is intended to include all of the tasks an Infiltration & Duct Leakage Professional may perform, as well as the knowledge, skills, and abilities required to do these tasks. This certification is designed for new construction code compliance.

Please note that certification is not a license to practice. All certified persons must comply with applicable federal, state and local laws and regulations governing the profession.

4. Preparing for the IDL Exam

There are no prerequisites to take this exam or become certified. Before you register for the exam:

- Download the latest version of the BPI Infiltration & Duct Leakage scheme handbook from www.bpi.org
- Read and understand all information
- Refer to the Functions and Tasks to be sure that you understand and can perform the tasks required for this certification
- Obtain reference materials for the field exam and study well in advance of taking the exam

4.1 Special Testing Accommodations

Candidates in need of special testing accommodations, such as a language barrier, or arrangements for persons with disabilities, should submit the appropriate forms as noted in Appendix (C and D).

It is highly recommended that you submit your request for accommodation at least thirty (30) days prior to your preferred exam date.

4.2 Proof of Identity

Candidates must provide valid photo identification prior to taking the exam. Please make sure that when registering for the exam, the name used is the same that is listed on the valid photo ID.

Examples of acceptable forms of photo ID are:

- driver's license
- state issued photo ID
- passport
- military identification
- employee identification card

4.3 Certification Fees and Scheduling

BPI certification exams are provided through BPI Test Centers. Please reach out to a local BPI Test Center for fees and scheduling details of exams, as they will vary from Test Center to Test Center. To locate a BPI Test Center, please go to the BPI website (www.bpi.org) and select Locator from the top of the page.

BPI does not set schedules for its Test Centers, nor does BPI collect the exam fees.

4.4 Field Testing Environment

Field exams conducted at a site that does not have duct work will be void. While it is the proctor's responsibility to find a suitable test site, the candidate should also be aware of this requirement to avoid potential testing issues.

Please be aware that during the performance exam, the proctor may ask questions in relation to line items on the field exam form for clarification purposes only. Proctors should not be asking any other type of questions, and are NOT permitted to ask questions unrelated to, or above and beyond the scope of the line items on the field exam form. If a candidate feels that they were asked questions that were inappropriate, please complete the Complaint Form located at www.bpi.org.

5. Practicum (Field) Evaluation (Abilities)

A practical evaluation to determine the candidates' abilities has been developed by BPI in order to ensure competency in the critical tasks defined by BPI. This will provide documented evidence that the candidates have the appropriate abilities.

The practicum evaluation exam is constructed where candidates are requested to perform a task. Their abilities are then evaluated based on a predetermined set of criteria.

The candidates will follow the outline in the Functions and Tasks section in this document.

The time limit for the practicum evaluation is one (1) hour and thirty (30) minutes (1 1/2) hours. This exam is an open-book exam (the only reference not permitted is assistance). Any papers used to take notes, create diagrams, or record diagnostic results (scrap paper) may not leave the testing environment. All papers must be handed to the proctor to be destroyed.

The field exam consists of the set up and preparation of the whole house depressurization device (e.g. blower door) as well as a duct pressurization test, performing total system leakage, leakage to outside and general analysis.

The passing score for the exam is 85%.

Candidates may challenge the IDL field exam up to six (6) times in a one-year period. The one-year period begins after the first unsuccessful attempt of the exam, after which time a candidate will have five (5) more attempts to successfully challenge the exam. There is a cost for each exam. BPI permits twelve (12) months to complete the certification process from the time a candidate takes the first exam.

The practicum evaluation is administered through BPI Test Centers at various locations across the United States. Please go to the BPI website (www.bpi.org) and select Locator at the top of the page to find a BPI Test Center near you.

7. Standards of Reference

All BPI exams are based on a mixture of industry practices, axiomatic¹ concepts, and major standards of references. No singular source exists that could touch upon every aspect for what is considered testable. Conversely, there is no limit to the potential useful material found in print and online.

- ASTM E 1554-07 (leakage to outdoors test method C)

8. Exam Security

Exams are highly confidential materials. Any attempts to willfully compromise the integrity of the exam, the exam process, or the certification process shall be taken seriously; offenders may be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law. In addition, any certification credential may be revoked immediately if a breach is proven to have been made by a certified individual.

9. Granting

In order to receive IDL certification, the candidate must successfully complete the field exam.

9.1 Notification of Exam Results and Certification

Once exam results have been processed the candidate will be able to log in to their Candidate Account to view exam results.

¹ An axiomatic concept is something implicit that requires no proof or explanation (e.g. – the sum of 2 and 2 is 4, or gravity states that if you drop something, it will fall to a lower level).

The BPI Certified Professional will be notified once BPI certification has been awarded. BPI Certified Professionals may log into their Candidate Account and retrieve a digital copy of their active certification(s) and ID Badge to use on their mobile device or print from a PDF.

The certificate will expire three (3) years from the date of initial certification.

The photo identification certification card contains, but is not limited to:

- name of the Certified Professional
- BPI ID number
- BPI's name and logo
- reference to a certification scheme (name of certification)
- date when certification expires

9.2 Time Limits for Completing Certification

BPI permits twelve (12) months to complete the certification process from the time a candidate takes the first exam. Candidates may challenge the IDL field exam up to six (6) times in a one-year period. The one-year period begins after the first unsuccessful attempt of the exam, after which time a candidate will have five (5) more attempts to successfully challenge the exam.

Candidates that do not successfully complete the IDL field exam and achieve certification within the one-year period, must wait for the one-year anniversary of the first unsuccessful attempt to challenge the exam again.

9.3 Extensions

BPI reserves the right to extend a Certified Professional's certification on a case-by-case basis. Certifications are not guaranteed to be extended; only under extenuating circumstances that BPI deems warranted. If a certification is extended, any CEUs that were accumulated up to the point of the original expiration date will also be included in that extension.

9.4 Confidentiality of Information

BPI and BPI Test Centers shall adhere to all policies and procedures regarding candidate confidentiality and shall not release any information regarding any candidate or Certified Professional without obtaining prior written permission. BPI provides confidentiality clauses as part of the online registration process. These disclosure clauses are intended to assist BPI and the BPI Test Center to protect the candidate's or Certified Professional's information.

10. Certification Renewal

BPI Certified Professionals who hold the Infiltration & Duct Leakage certification will be required to renew their certification every three (3) years.

The certification renewal requirements for BPI certified IDL Professionals must be completed prior to the current certification expiration date. Certified Professionals will be allowed to start the certification renewal process six (6) months prior to expiration, and if successful, will have the next renewal date as three (3) years from the current certification expiration date. If certification renewal is completed more than six (6) months in advance, the expiration date will change to the date of the last successful exam.

To be eligible for certification renewal, BPI certified IDL Professionals:

- must successfully challenge the IDL field exam prior to the expiration date, OR
- complete and submit the application for certification renewal with applicable fees

BPI's certification renewal policy recognizes the work experience of BPI Certified Professionals. This policy eliminates field exam requirements in certain circumstances according to verified work experience. This policy will benefit those Certified Professionals who maintain continuous certification and remain active in home performance roles. Please refer to the BPI Certification Renewal Policy found in the Recertification section for IDL on the BPI website for further details.

Field Code Changed

As part of the certification renewal process, BPI will review the Certified Professional's file for any open complaints. Should there be any open complaints at the time of expiration, BPI will not award certification renewal. The certification of the individual will be withdrawn or revoked due to the Certified Professional's negligent refusal to follow the certification scheme requirements.

Any attempt at certification renewal that is unsuccessful will end the current certification. (e.g. if an attempt at the IDL field exam for recertification is unsuccessful, that will end the current IDL certification immediately.)

11. Surveillance

Surveillance of the Certified Professional is established to ensure compliance to the policies and procedures for which the certification was granted. The certification of the individual may be withdrawn or revoked due to the Certified Professional's negligent refusal to follow the certification scheme requirements or failure to take appropriate corrective action as required by BPI.

12. File Review

The Certification Department will conduct a file review of Certified Professionals that have complaints filed against them. The review of the Certified Professional's file activities includes confirmation that any complaints against the Certified Professional have been resolved.

13. Corrective / Preventative Action

The corrective / preventative action shall include one of the following and is determined on a case by case basis at the discretion of BPI:

Level One: A corrective action will be given when the infraction is considered minor in nature. A written warning shall be sent to the Certified Professional about the nature of the infraction along with the required corrective action. The written warning will become part of the Certified Professional's record.

Level Two: A corrective action will be given when the infraction is considered major in nature and requires proof. A written warning is sent to the Certified Professional about the infraction. The Certified Professional is required to submit proof, in writing, that the infraction has been corrected. The written warning and response will become part of the Certified Professional's record.

14. Withdrawal of Certification

Should the BPI certified IDL Professional not maintain certification by not being able to fulfill the obligation of the certification due to illness, disability, change of profession, etc., the certification will be withdrawn at the request of the Certified Professional. BPI must be notified immediately if a Certified Professional may not be able to, or is no longer able to, fulfill the requirements of the certification.

BPI reserves the right, on a case by case basis, to withdraw a person's BPI Certification(s) at its discretion. Reasons for withdrawal of a BPI Certification include, but are not limited to:

- Failure to meet certification renewal criteria as outlined in Section 10
- Failure to take steps to submit the requested information of a corrective action as outlined in Section 13
- Failure to follow the BPI IDL Professional Code of Ethics and/or Code of Conduct
- Failure to follow BPI Standards that align with the certification's JTA's, when applicable

In the event the BPI IDL certification is withdrawn; the BPI Manager of Client Relations will review the Certified Professional's record and send confirmation of the withdrawal within thirty (30) days and provide a written statement in regard to steps that must be taken if the candidate requests the certification be reinstated.

Use of the BPI logo or brand and representation of being BPI certified must cease immediately if a certification is withdrawn, revoked, or expired.

15. Appeal Procedure

Individuals who wish to file an appeal of a decision on certification, against the results of an IDL exam, or regarding the suspension of the IDL certification, must do so in writing.

Please Note: If a candidate chooses to challenge the exam that they are appealing, prior to the notification of a final decision on their appeal, the results of the appeal will be null and void, regardless of the outcome. The original score of the appealed exam will stand.

Appendix C – Candidates with Special Testing Accommodations

Candidates with Special Testing Accommodations

The Americans with Disabilities (ADA) Act provides comprehensive civil rights protection for qualified individuals with disabilities. An individual with a disability is a person who: (1) has a physical impairment or a mental impairment that substantially limits a major life activity, (2) has a record of such impairment, or (3) is regarded as having such an impairment.

The ADA does not specifically name all of the impairments that are covered. If you have a disability, you have the right to inquire and receive information about testing accommodations.

“Testing Accommodation” means an adjustment to or modification of the standard testing conditions that eases the impact of the applicant’s disability on the exam process without altering the nature of the exam.

As an applicant claiming a disability that requires testing accommodations, the applicant must properly complete the Special Testing Accommodation form. The burden of proof is on the applicant to establish the existence of a disability protected by the Americans with Disabilities Act, as well as to establish the need for testing accommodations. Each application is evaluated on a case by case basis.

Qualified individuals with disabilities are required to request accommodations every time they plan to take the exam. It is in the candidate’s best interests to provide recent and appropriate documentation, which clearly defines the extent and impact of the impairment(s) upon current levels of academic and physical functioning.

- Request for accommodations and appropriate supporting documentation, which when completed, should provide evidence of a substantial limitation to physical or academic functioning.
- Clinical evaluations and examinations of the candidate that have resulted in a diagnosis of a physical or mental impairment must have been performed by a licensed/certified or otherwise qualified professional with credentials appropriate to diagnose a candidate’s disability consistent with the provisions of the ADA. Details about the professional’s area of specialization and professional credentials must be provided.
- Documentation must be submitted on official letterhead from a licensed or qualified professional who examined the candidate and diagnosed a physical or mental impairment. Depending on the disability and written evaluation, documentation may include a letter from a physician or a detailed report.
- Document must be no more than 3 years old.
- Documentation for all disabilities should describe the extent of the disability and recommended accommodations.

A diagnosis of Attention Deficit Disorder (ADD) or Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD) must be supported by a current (administered within the past three years) comprehensive evaluation and relevant neuropsychological or psychoeducational assessment batteries. The report must include documented information that the patient meets criteria for long standing history, impairment, and pervasiveness. The report must include specific diagnosis of ADHD based on the DSM-IV diagnostic criteria.
